

Craftsbury's Women in M&A Retreat

A Retreat Designed for M&A Professionals

Craftsbury Consulting's Women in M&A Retreat is designed to take individuals out of their everyday routines and environment, enabling them to step back, assess, set goals and network with other women in the industry.

We provide individuals the tools to excel at business development, increase positive mindset, hone leadership skills, and set goals that will lead to greater success and fulfillment. We will address common obstacles, both self induced and institutional, in the high-pressure world of M&A. Covering topics such as:

- Best practices in M&A
- Winning the pitch/deal
- Personal branding and presentation skills
- Managing up and down
- Capitalizing on strengths in an authentic way
- Identifying development areas
- Thriving in a male dominated industry

This retreat provides an excellent opportunity to network with industry leading women in the world of mergers & acquisitions (PE, IB and those that serve to get the deal done). Participation is limited to a maximum of 9 individuals to ensure an intimate setting that encourages open and honest dialogue.

The retreat will be led by Caroline Young, Founder & CEO of Craftsbury Consulting. An industry veteran that is passionate about helping women craft their path to success.
